The Robe UK sales force continues to grow, with the addition of the ebullient Bill Jones – who joins as Pro Sales Manager, just a month after the team was boosted by the presence of Ian W Brown.

Jones will be based 'on-the-road' for the Northampton based Robe UK, and brings a wealth of sales skills and experience to the equation. His previous work in the professional sound and lighting industry includes stints with Harman Pro, CCT, Lightfactor and Stage Electrics, which also give him a valuable insight into the lighting rental and live performance markets. Jones also has considerable experience in all areas of the moving light market which makes him ideal for the post.

Robe UK MD Ian P Brown says, "We're extremely fortunate to have found someone of Bill's calibre, especially just after getting Ian W onboard. I'm confident that the Robe UK sales team is at its most robust yet, and we're in a great position to capitalise on the all the positive feedback we've had since PLASA."

Bill Jones comments, "I'm really looking forward to working with the Robe brand – great quality products at sensible prices. The timing is also exactly right to push into new and exciting areas".
