

5.7.2012

Robe Gets The Party Started at PLASA Focus Nashville

Robe continues its long tradition of hospitality and generating social interaction with the announcement of a party to coincide with the upcoming PLASA Focus exhibition in Nashville, TN, taking place July 11th – 12th at the Municipal Auditorium.

The Robe Party will be staged in the Reverb Room at the Hard Rock Café, 100 Broadway in downtown Nashville on Wednesday, July 11th, kicking off at 8pm and running until midnight.

It's a private event, so guests can gain entry by showing their ticket – which can be collected from the Robe booth 211 at the exhibition. The ticket will also be valid for drinks throughout the evening. The party is open to any attendees and exhibitors at the show.

The evening's entertainment will feature live music – bands and special guests to be announced shortly – and it's intended as a convivial hub for everyone to relax and enjoy a great time networking, chatting, drinking and catching up on all the action and news of the day.

PLASA Focus: Nashville Party

Robe invites you to party with us in Nashville, TN!

When: Wednesday, July 11th @ 8pm
Where: Hard Rock Cafe (100 Broadway)

- ❖ Complimentary cocktails
- ❖ Live music from 8pm until midnight
- ❖ Pick up your VIP badge at the Robe booth (#211) for entry

ROBE